

HORSE IN STRIPED PYJAMAS

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a horse in striped pyjamas

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a zebra

I see, but it still looks like a horse

In striped pyjamas to me

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a bird in his tuxedo

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a penguin

I see, but it still looks like a horse

In striped pyjamas to me

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a teddy with two black eyes

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a panda

I see, but it still looks like a bird

in his tuxedo to me

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a seal with long thick whiskers

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a walrus

I see, but it still looks like a seal with long thick whiskers to me

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a cat with polka dots on

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a leopard

I see, but it still looks like cat with polka dots on to me

Look there Daddy do you see?

There's a bird in his umbrella

No that's not what it is at all

That's an animal people call a peacock

I see, but it still looks like bird

In his umbrella to me
